Like, best (when short for best wishes), can I get, amazing (for things that obviously aren't), hive-mind, transwoman or trans woman, gender-neutral.

ie There were 71% more homicides perpetrated by trans people, all biologically male, than against trans people (all biologically male).

Funny isn't it how the same people who don't know the difference between women and men think all feminists are the same and all groups of feminists active against trans ideology are indistinguishable.
Do your homework.

Apparently it's transphobic if you don't think a male winning a women's wrestling competition is something to celebrate.

Nyla Rose tackles transphobia after historic title win

It is not a human right for males to compete against females in competitive sport.

Framing it as such is an insult to those whose access to or benefit from human rights are restricted or denied.

"Preventing trans women from competing or requiring them to take medication is denying their human rights."

World Champion cyclist @rachelvmckinnon defends her right to race as a trans woman despite saying 'it's possible' to have an advantage.

If I learned anything from the election, it's that I can't imagine I'll ever not vote Labour in a GE. I resigned my membership a couple of years ago when the general secretary said males can stand on all women shortlists.

I joined the WEP but the realisation that they didn't have the guts or inclination to take an open position on women's oppression, rights and protections as being sex based, led me to come to the conclusion that they're not worthy of their name.

Maya Angelou said "When someone shows you who they really are, believe them the first time."

Penis News tells us that it really doesn't give a toss about lesbians. Believe them.

I was disappointed by Jess Phillip's responses to questions about trans identified males in her Penis News and Mumsnet interviews but I still have a lot of respect for her work on domestic violence & abuse in parliament.
There's an odour of sexism in some of the reactions to her.

Some of the things I find most disturbing about trans activism is the undermining of lesbianism as same sex female attraction, the pressure on lesbians to accept the notion of a woman with a dick (& a potential partner) and the failure of LGB organisations to support lesbians.
